1. Announcement of the Call for Academic Papers

Fill in the submission form on the website: <https://oec.anamai.moph.go.th/th/academic2568> according to the specified topics. The paper must be original, not repetitive, and must not have been presented previously.

1.1 Outline of Abstract

1.1.1 Research & Development Paper

The abstract must be prepared in a continuous narrative format following the specified template and attached as a Microsoft Word file. The abstract should not exceed 400 words (excluding the title, author's name, and presenter's name) or one A4 page, using 12-point size, bold, Times New Roman, single-spaced. The top and left margins should be 1.25 inches, and the bottom and right margins should be 1 inch. All numerical data must be written in Arabic numerals. A complete abstract must include:

(1) Title: Use Times New Roman, 14-point size, bold, all uppercase, and centered on the page.

(2) List of contributors: Use Times New Roman, 12-point size. Write the full name(s) without title and academic honors. Underline the name of the presenting author and align the text to the right of the page.

(3) Affiliation(s): Use Times New Roman, 12-point size. If the authors are affiliated with multiple institutions, use superscript numbers before the institution name and after the author's name to correspond correctly. Align to the right of the page.

(4) Introduction and Objective(s): Briefly explain the significance and background of the research problem, and clearly state the study or research objectives.

(5) Method(s): Describe the research design, sample determination, and sampling methods. Include details on data collection tools and data analysis techniques.

(6) Result(s): Present key findings in alignment with the described methods.

(7) Conclusion and Recommendations: Summarize the essential findings and provide clear, focused recommendations.

(8) Keywords
